A TA MEETING OF THE NINTH CLASS ASSOCIAAt ion of old Public School No. 14, held April 12, 1873, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—
Whereas this association having learned of the death by the recent disaster to the ill-iated steamer Atlantic of our esteemed Fresident, John H. Frice: and whereas this sad intelligence renders it necessary to may a proper tribute of respect to the memory of one respected by all; therefore,
Resolved, That the sudden and unexpected death of our old classmate, who has been with us many years in social enloyment commensorative of boyhood's days, has left a void which cannot be filled, and regrets that will tings our pleasures with sorrow.
Resolved, That we will hold in leasing remembrance the many good qualities that endeared him to us all. Gifted, as he was, with intellectual abilities far above the away good qualities that endeared him to us all. Gifted, as he was, with intellectual abilities far above the many good qualities that endeared him to us all. Gifted, as he was, with intellectual abilities far above the many good qualities that endeared him to us all. Gifted, as he was, with intellectual abilities far above the many good qualities that endeared him to us all. Gifted, as he was, with intellectual abilities far above the mission to the will of the Amighty, with a successive in this act an illustration of His warning, "Be a low ready." We yet deplore the viatation which deprived a devoted mother and sitters of the light of their household and this association of an honored President, with whom the friendships formed in youth were strongly cemented by the reunions of our manhood. In the last and eternal reunion above may we neet again.

Resolved, That we tender to his family our hearifelt sympathies, and, while we cannot protend to realize the depth or extent of their anguish, we vet earnestly hope the anticipation of a meeting hereafter will soften and illumine their dark hours of sorrow.
